

Lightweight photovoltaic module concept

Innovative and frameless concept for a photovoltaic module with a hybrid subassembly structure.

The thermoplastic beam was developed and produced at Fraunhofer ICT according to the MMP approach:

- materials (flame retardant PP-GF30)
- methods (construction, process and structural simulation)
- processing (multi-gate injection molding)

